

Shurgard Self Storage Ltd

INFORMATION DOCUMENT REGARDING OPTIONAL DIVIDEND

Option Period from May 26, 2025 until June 10, 2025 (16:00 CET)

May 23, 2025

On May 14, 2025, the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of Shurgard Self Storage Ltd, registered under Guernsey law, having its registered office at 1st & 2nd floors, Elizabeth House, Les Ruettes Brayes, St Peter Port, gy1 1ew, Guernsey (Shurgard or the Company), approved the distribution of a gross dividend of EUR 0.5900 per share (EUR 0.5730 net, after deduction of a 20% withholding tax¹) (the Dividend).

The Board of Directors (the Board) of Shurgard has decided in this context on February 27, 2025, under the suspensive condition of approval by the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders on May 14, 2025 to distribute the gross dividend, to offer shareholders of the Company, by way of an optional dividend, the possibility of contributing their claim arising from the distribution of the Dividend, into the capital of the Company against the issue of new shares, in addition to the option of receiving the Dividend in cash, or opting for a combination of the two preceding options (the Optional Dividend).

The issue price for the new shares in the context of the Optional Dividend has been set at EUR 34.3800 per new share, which corresponds to a contribution of 60 net dividend rights of EUR 0.5730.

This information document (the Information Document) is intended for the shareholders of Shurgard and provides information on the number and nature of the new shares and the reasons for and details of the Optional Dividend.

In accordance with Articles 1, (4), (h) and 1 (5) (g) of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 of the European Parliament and of the Council of June 14, 2017 concerning the prospectus to be published in the event of an offer to the securities market or with a view to the admission of securities to trading on a regulated market, and repealing Directive 2003/71 / EC (the Prospectus Regulation), insofar as the Company makes available to shareholders a document containing information on the number and nature of the shares as well as on the reasons and the terms of the offer, and insofar as the new shares to be issued will be of the same category as those already admitted to trading on the same regulated market, the Company is not bound by the obligation to publish a prospectus.

1. OVERVIEW OF THE MAIN CONSIDERATIONS OF THE OPTIONAL DIVIDEND

1.1 Executive Summary of the Optional Dividend

Ex-date for the Dividend	Monday May 19, 2025
Record date for the Dividend	Tuesday May 20, 2025
Payment date for the (Optional) Dividend	Friday June 13, 2025
Exchange Ratio	One New Share (as defined below) can be obtained by contributing 60 Dividend Rights (as defined below).
Issue Price per New Share	EUR 34.3800 When calculating the Issue Price per New Share, the result was rounded to a multiple of the (as the case may be, presumed) net Dividend amount, i.e. EUR 0.5730.
Option Period	From Monday May 26, 2025 to Tuesday June 10, 2025 at 16:00 CET.
Choice for the shareholders	A shareholder can choose between: (i) contributing its Dividend Rights (as defined below), (ii) receiving the Dividend in cash or (iii) a combination of both options. In the event a shareholder does not make a choice, the Dividend will be paid out in cash.

1.2 Choice for the shareholders

In the context of the Optional Dividend, a shareholder can choose between:

- the contribution of its dividend rights, after taking into account a deduction of 20% PID withholding tax², linked to existing shares (the Dividend Rights) into the Company in exchange for new shares (each a New Share, and collectively, the New Shares);
- payment of the Dividend in cash (default option); or
- a combination of both previous options.

² For detail on the treatment of possible reductions or exemptions from 20% PID withholding tax, please refer to Dividend Information 2025 | Shurgard Investor Relations (www.shurgard.com/corporate/investors/dividend/2025www.shurgard.com/corporate/investors/dividend/2025).

Shareholders who have not made a choice known during the Option Period (as defined below), in the manner provided for this purpose, will in any case receive the Dividend in cash.

1.3 Issue Price and Exchange Ratio

The issue price per New Share is EUR 34.3800 (the Issue Price).

In order to obtain one New Share, 60 Dividend Rights, i.e. the net Dividend claims attached to 60 existing shares, must be contributed (the Exchange Ratio).

The Issue Price corresponds to the volume weighted average stock market price (VWAP) of the Company's shares on the regulated market of Euronext Brussels during the reference period (from Wednesday May 21, 2025 to Friday May 23, 2025), i.e. EUR 34.5304, and the application of a discount fixed by the Company's ad hoc Pricing Committee at the end of the reference period of 0.44%.

The Issue Price of EUR 34.3800 represents a premium of 1.42% compared to the closing price on May 23, 2025 (i.e. EUR 33.9000).

Even if shareholders benefit from an upfront exemption from UK withholding tax, the Dividend Rights will always amount to EUR 0.5730 per share. Any balance resulting from such exemption from withholding tax will always be paid out in cash to the relevant shareholders.

When calculating the Issue Price, the result was rounded to a multiple of the (as the case may be, presumed) net Dividend amount, i.e. EUR 0.5730.

Annex 1 of this Information Document sets out an example illustrating the number of New Shares and any cash amounts to which a shareholder would be entitled with a selected number of shares.

1.4 Option period

The option period, during which shareholders can choose to take part in the Optional Dividend, will start on May 26, 2025 at 9:00 (CET) and will end on June 10, 2025 at 16:00 (CET) (the Option Period).

Shareholders who have not made a choice known during this Option Period in the manner provided for this purpose will in any event receive the Dividend in cash from the payment date.

The share has listed ex dividend as of May 19, 2025 (ex date) with regard to the distribution of the Dividend. The record date, i.e. the date on which the positions are closed to identify the shareholders entitled to the distributions, has occurred on May 20, 2025.

1.5 Reason for the Optional Dividend

The decision by the Board to offer an Optional Dividend and carry out a capital increase up to the total amount of Dividend Rights contributed by shareholders is part of a policy to optimise management of the Company's equity and cash-flow. It also makes it possible to reduce the Company's debt ratio and to strengthen ties with shareholders by allowing them to subscribe to New Shares of the Company at an issue price lower than the VWAP during the reference period.

1.6 Number of New Shares to be issued

The New Shares to be issued under the Optional Dividend will be of the same class as the existing shares. They will benefit from the same rights and benefits as existing shares, including dividend rights.

As a result of the Optional Dividend, a maximum of 1,641,446 New Shares may be issued. The actual number of New Shares that will be issued cannot be determined at the date of this Information Document, as it depends on the number of Dividend Rights that the shareholders of the Company will contribute.

The total maximum Issue Price of the New Shares will be EUR 56,432,945.

1.7 Who can participate?

(a) General

Any shareholder who is entitled to a sufficient number of Dividend Rights to subscribe to one New Share according to the Exchange Ratio will be able to partake in the issuance of the New Shares pursuant to the Optional Dividend.

The Dividend Rights will not be listed or traded on the stock exchange. There will also be no possibility to acquire additional standalone Dividend Rights. The contribution of Dividend Rights will also not be able to be supplemented by an additional cash contribution.

Shareholders who do not have the required number of Dividend Rights attached to shares to subscribe to the next total number of New Shares according to the Exchange Ratio, will be paid (the balance of) their Dividend Rights that are not sufficient to subscribe to the next total number of New Shares in cash.

(b) Points of attention for non-resident shareholders

It should be noted that certain shareholders, in certain jurisdictions, might be unable to choose to participate in the Optional Dividend by receiving New Shares, given that such action would constitute, by said shareholder or by Shurgard, a breach of any registration requirement or any other statutory or regulatory requirement in said jurisdiction. Furthermore, it cannot be excluded that financial institutions, or financial intermediaries, impose further restrictions.

A shareholder who is not a Belgian resident and who wishes to partake in the Optional Dividend by contributing its Dividend Rights into Shurgard, should itself examine whether it can validly partake in the Optional Dividend. Only the shareholder shall be responsible to assess the permissibility of partaking in the Optional Dividend under the laws and regulations of the jurisdiction where a non-Belgian resident shareholder resides (including, e.g. any license requirement imposed by law, regulation, or any supervisory authority). In the event a shareholder would not be permitted to take part in the Optional Dividend, the shareholder will not be able to subscribe to any New Shares.

1.8 How to participate?

Shareholders who wish to contribute (all or part of) their Dividend Rights into the Company in exchange for New Shares must, during the Option Period, reach out to the financial institution that holds the shares to instruct their choice via the custody chain.

Only shareholders who have a sufficient number of Dividend Rights attached to shares to subscribe to one New Share according to the Exchange Ratio may participate in the Optional Dividend. It is not possible to acquire additional standalone Dividend Rights. The Dividend Rights will also not be listed and traded on the stock exchange. It is also not possible to supplement the contribution of Dividend Rights with a contribution in cash.

If shareholders do not have the necessary number of Dividend Rights attached to shares to subscribe to the next total number of New Shares according to the exchange ratio, they will be paid (the balance of) their Dividend Rights that are not sufficient to subscribe to the next total number of New Shares in cash.

1.9 Dilution

Shareholders (i) who do not have a sufficient number of Dividend Rights to participate in the Optional Dividend entirely pro rata to their current shareholding, or (ii) who do not wish to participate in the Optional Dividend and thus receive their Dividend in cash, will be diluted in the financial rights (including dividend rights and participation in the liquidation balance) and membership rights (including voting rights and preferential rights) associated with their existing participation.

As the Issue Price is calculated on the basis of a premium compared to the closing share price of May 23, 2025, the current shareholders of the Company who do not wish to contribute their Dividend Rights in respect of their current shareholding will not be subject to financial dilution.

1.10 Intentions of some shareholder(s) of the Company

Certain major shareholders of the Company have indicated that they intend to subscribe to the issue of the New Shares in the context of the Optional Dividend to the fullest extent possible.

1.11 Payment of the Dividend and issuance of the New Shares

On or around June 13, 2025, the New Shares will be issued by Shurgard, based on the results of the Optional Dividend at the end of the Option Period. The New Shares will have the same form as the existing shares already held by the shareholder that has contributed its Dividend Rights.

Shareholders who do not partake in the Optional Dividend, or who do not partake with all of their Dividend Rights, will also be paid (part of) their Dividend in cash on or around June 13, 2025.

1.12 Listing of the New Shares

The Company will submit an application to Euronext Brussels for the additional listing of the New Shares to be issued as a result of the Optional Dividend and intends that the New Shares will be admitted to trading on Euronext Brussels as soon as possible and in principle from the date of issue (i.e. on or around June 16, 2025).

1.13 Transaction costs

All legal and administrative costs related to the Optional Dividend and the Issuance of the New Shares will be borne by the Company.

2. CANCELLATION OR SUSPENSION BY THE COMPANY

The Board has granted its ad hoc Pricing Committee, that consists of Marc Oursin, Thomas Oversberg and Ammar Kharouf, the power to decide to suspend or cancel the contribution of Dividend Rights (and the associated capital increase) if, during the Option Period, the share price on the regulated market of Euronext Brussels should experience a significant increase or decrease or if during this same period, one or more events of an exceptional nature or of a nature to have a material adverse effect on the capital market should occur, although the exercise or non-exercise of this right can in no case engage the responsibility of the Company. In the event of cancellation, the dividend will be paid in cash and where applicable, the decision of suspension or cancellation of the transaction will be immediately subject to a press release.

3. TAX CONSEQUENCES

As a UK REIT, Shurgard may pay dividends either as a Property Income Distribution (PID) or a normal dividend or a combination of both. A PID is a distribution of the tax-exempt profits or gains from the Group's UK property rental business and is subject to a 20% withholding tax. A non-PID distribution is not subject to withholding tax. In case of a PID, the dividend to be received will be reduced by the withholding tax, applicable to the PID proportion of the dividend payment. In other words, the relevant withholding tax will be withheld from the gross dividend and is the basis for calculating the number of shares to be issued. Reference is made to Annex 1 of this Information Document for an example of the PID calculation.

The information above cannot be considered as investment, legal or tax advice. Shareholders are advised to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences, taking into account their jurisdiction, and having due regard for their particular situation.

4. CONTACT

For more information regarding the Optional Dividend, shareholders can contact the financial institution that holds their shares.

ANNEX 1

EXAMPLE

To illustrate, the following is an example in the context of the payment of the Optional Dividend.

Example:

The example assumes a shareholder who owns 1,000 existing shares and a withholding tax of 20% on the PID. It is assumed that PID equals 0.0850 € per share.

For this example, assumed Issue Price per New Share is 34.3800€.

In this example one New Share to be issued can be subscribed to by contributing the Dividend Rights attached to a minimum of 60 existing shares. In other words, for each contribution of the net Dividend Rights attached to 60 shares, a shareholder will receive one New Share.

All numbers are calculated and rounded to 4 digits.

- Withholding tax on PID per share: $0.0850 \text{ €} \times 20\% = 0.0170 \text{ €}$
- Net Dividend per share: $0.5900\text{€} - 0.0170 \text{ €} = 0.5730 \text{ €}$
- Aggregate value of net cash dividend: $1,000 \times 0.5730 \text{ €} = 573.0000 \text{ €}$
- Number of New Shares: $573.0000 \text{ €} \div 34.3800 \text{ €} = 16.6667$, rounded down to 16
- Cash for remaining Dividend Rights: $573.0000 \text{ €} - (16 \times 34.3800 \text{ €}) = 22.9197 \text{ €}$
- Total net dividend payout of 573.0000 €, rounded to two digits, consists of:
 - o 16 shares $\times 34.3800 \text{ €} = 550.08 \text{ €}$
 - o Cash dividend: 22.92 €
